

Native Americans

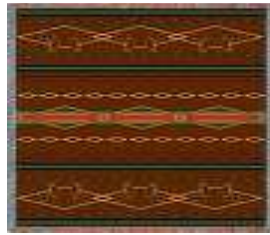

Stars of the Week

Charlie Schroeter
Elijah Cherian
Holden Alpern

Mystery Reader

Melissa Schroeter
Alison Medeiros

NOVEMBER 17TH-21ST

Picture Day!

Picture days are on Thursday, November 20th
and Friday, November 21th Siblings are welcome for pictures.

Shape of the Week Square

Weekly Number #12

Stories

Rainbow Crow
There was an Old Women that Swallowed a Trout
Arthur's Thanksgiving
Turk and Runt

Language

Dream catcher stories
Corn letter match (Aa)

Math and Science

Corn grinding
Totem pole counting
Matching teepee shapes
Headdress patterns
Baking cornbread
Rock count
Weaving

Letter of the Week

Tt

Creative Art

Secret project
Corn painting
Tortilla teepee

Super Science

Spud Challenge

At Home

Innuksuks are Native American rock sculptures that guide visitors along the path and ensure that will have safe travels (see photo above). Try making your own smaller innuksuk to wish your family safe travels during Thanksgiving

Thanksgiving Feasts

Our Thanksgiving Feasts are on November 20th and 21st. This is a feast of friendship soup and corn bread will be shared with the Rainbow Room.

